Experient al Learning Requirement All students are required to complete 20-25 hours of experient al educat on. The following qualify:

- 1. An internship in a feld related to sustainability, diversity and inclusion, or business ethics.
- 2. Complet on of CESR 4005, CESR 4850 or a startup related to sustainability in ESBM 4830. These courses may count toward the experient al learning requirement or toward the business coursework requirement, but not both.
- 3. Part cipat on in qualif ed events hosted by CESR such as bootcamps, skills workshops and student treks. Speaking engagements, a service-learning study abroad, or club leadership may also qualify. Please follow up with CESR directly for specific questions.

All students must submit a Experient al Learning Requirement form before graduat on to complete this requirement.