Exams

There will be 2 midterm exams throughout the semester. These exams will be held in the regular classroom at the regular class time. If you require additional testing accommodations (reduced distractions, extra Friday, Jan. 31st. Your highest midterm exam score will count for 30% of your overall course grade, and your lowest midterm exam score will count for 10%. Finally, absol is based solely on a being physical and mental, meaning that even if you are physically present, if you are not mentally attentive (if you are distracted by your phone, or if you are sleeping, for example), then I leave it up to the discretion to determine whether you have earned attendance credit for that class period.

How to Succeed in This Course

Below are a few tips that will help you succeed throughout the semester:

Read the relevant sections of the textbook before class.

Review the material (the powerpoint slides and/or your notes) within 1 day after the lecture.

Complete all homework assignments.

Use office hours effectively. The more detailed your questions are, the more helpful I can be. But please do not hesitate to come by my (or my TA s) office hours if you are struggling with anything.

Technology Policy

Students are allowed (although not encouraged) to use their laptops during my class. However, if you plan to use your laptop, you must be seated in the back half of

Classroom Behavior

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Those who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, veteran status, political affiliation or political philosophy. For more information, see the policies on classroom behavior and the Student Code of Conduct.

Preferred Student Names and Pronouns

CU Boulder recognizes that students' legal information doesn't always align with how they identify. Students may update their preferred names and pronouns via the student portal; those preferred names and pronouns are listed on instructors' class rosters. In the absence of such updates, the name that appears on the class roster is the student's legal name.

Honor Code

All students enrolled in a University of Colorado Boulder course are responsible for knowing and adhering to the Honor Code. Violations of the policy may include: plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, lying, bribery, threat, unauthorized access to academic materials, clicker fraud, submitting the same or similar work in more than one course without permission from all course instructors involved, and aiding academic dishonesty. All incidents of academic misconduct will be reported to the Honor Code (honor@colorado.edu); 303-492-5550). Students found responsible for violating the academic integrity policy will be subject to nonacademic sanctions from the Honor Code as well as academic sanctions from the faculty member. Additional information regarding the Honor Code academic integrity policy can be found at the Honor Code Office website.

Sexual Misconduct, Discrimination, Harassment and/or Related Retaliation

The University of Colorado Boulder (CU Boulder) is committed to fostering a positive and welcoming learning, working, and living environment. CU Boulder will not tolerate acts of sexual misconduct, intimate partner abuse (including dating or domestic violence), stalking, or protected-class discrimination or harassment by members of our community. Individuals who believe they have been subject to misconduct or retaliatory actions for reporting a concern should contact the Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance (OIEC) at 303-492-2127 or cureport@colorado.edu.
