Office Hours

Tues/Thurs 12:00-12:30 and 1:45-2:45, or by appointment.
I will gladly make an appointment to meet you and will hold extended office hours before exams. I will not typically be available on Mondays and Wednesdays.

Course Prerequisite

This class requires previous completion of Economics 3070, Intermediate Microeconomics, or the equivalent. Do not take this class without the prerequisite!

Grades

Grades will be based on:

1/3 first midterm

1/3 second midterm

1/3 final exam

Actual letter grades will be based on a combination of each student's performance relative to others in the class and the performance I would expect from an intelligent and hardworking student.

Some Additional Notes/Policies

Material from a Missed Class: If you miss class, you are responsible for obtaining the material you missed. Group exercises will be posted on the course web page. You should arrange to obtain notes from a classmate (in advance, if possible), not from the professor. I encourage you to come to my office hours to discuss the material you missed, but you must first obtain the notes and relevant handouts, go over the information for yourself, and prepare specific questions.

Missed Exams: Make-up exams will not be given. Exam absences will only be excused for compelling circumstances (generally family emergencies or documented illness), in which case the other exams will be re-weighted. Students anticipating conflict with an exam date due to religious observance or over-scheduling (3 or more exams on the same day) must bring these to my attention within the first 3 weeks of class.

Special Accommodations: Students with documented disabilities who may need academic accommodations should speak with me during first three weeks of the class. Also contact the Disability Services Office, Willard 322 (phone 303-492-8671), so that such accommodations may be arranged.

Extra Credit Assignments: Are not given.

Classroom Behavior: Ringing cell phones are not welcome in my class. Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Those who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with differences of race, culture, religion, politics, sexual orientation, gender, gender variance, and nationalities. Class rosters are provided to me with the student's legal name. I will gladly honor your request to address you by an alternate name or gender pronoun. Please advise me of this preference early in the semester so that I may make appropriate changes to my records.

See policies at <http://www.colorado.edu/policies/classbehavior.html> and at http://www.colorado.edu/studentaffairs/judicialaffairs/code.html#student_code

Honor Code: All students of the University of Colorado at Boulder are responsible for knowing and adhering to the academic integrity policy of this institution. Violations of this policy may include: cheating, plagiarism, aid of academic dishonesty, fabrication, lying, bribery, and threatening behavior. All incidents of academic misconduct shall be reported to the Honor Code Council (honor@colorado.edu; 303-725-2273). Students who are found to be in violation of the academic integrity policy will be subject to both academic sanctions from the faculty member and non-academic sanctions (including but not limited to university probation, suspension, or expulsion). Other information on the Honor Code can be found at <http://www.colorado.edu/policies/honor.html> and at <http://www.colorado.edu/academics/honorcode/>.

Religious Observances: Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to reasonably and fairly deal with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. In this class, I will accommodate any class requirement around your religious obligation. Please let me know of any scheduling conflict within the first 5 weeks of the term. See full details at www.colorado.edu/policies/fac_relig.html

Discrimination and Harassment: The University of Colorado at Boulder policy on Discrimination and Harassment, the University of Colorado policy on Sexual Harassment and the University of Colorado policy on Amorous Relationships apply to all students, staff and faculty. Any student, staff or faculty member who believes s/he has been the subject of discrimination or harassment based upon race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status should contact the Office of Discrimination and Harassment (ODH) at 303-492-2127 or the Office of Judicial Affairs at 303-492-5550. Information about the ODH, the above referenced policies and the campus resources available to assist individuals regarding discrimination or harassment can be obtained at <http://www.colorado.edu/odh>.
